Headline:
Sunny spells and scattered heavy showers.

Today:
Monday will see a mix of sunny spells and scattered showers. The showers will be heavy in places, especially near the coast as well as over hills. Turning cloudy across Pembrokeshire later, with heavy rain arriving by early evening. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Tonight:
Outbreaks of locally heavy rain will spread across all parts during the evening, however the rain will turn more showery in places towards morning. Becoming very windy along western coasts. Minimum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Tuesday:
Windy with frequent locally heavy showers in the morning with coastal gales in the north and west. Some sunnier interludes developing in the afternoon, with the wind beginning to ease. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Dry and bright on Wednesday with light winds. Cloudy and breezy on Friday, but dry for most. Bright spells on Friday once and morning mist and fog has lifted.
